FY 2017 Budget

- USPTO has started work on the FY 2017 OMB Budget submission
 - Internal guidance issued April 2015
 - PACs and DoC will receive a draft to review in August 2015
 - Final document will be completed by September 14, 2015

Biennial Fee Review

- Currently evaluating proposals and conducting analysis on potential adjustments to fees
- Decision on whether to initiate rulemaking process and formal notification to PPAC expected in September/October
- If USPTO intends to set or adjust fees, PPAC's role may vary
 - Dependent on the authority, such as whether fees set or adjusted will be pursuant to AIA section 10 or 35 U.S.C. section 41

Biennial Fee Review (continued)

- If AIA section 10 authority is employed and once USPTO's proposals are received, PPAC will have 30 days to:
 - Deliberate, consider, and comment on the fee adjustment proposal(s) and hold a public hearing
 - Accept written comments from the public
- Following receipt of PPAC initial comments, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) will be drafted

- NPRM requires clearance from USPTO, DOC, SBA, and OMB before publication in Federal Register
 - There will be a 60 day comment period for the NPRM
- PPAC is required to publish a report outlining comments and suggestions following the hearing
- Comments will be considered and responses provided in a Final Rule
- Final Rule will require additional additional clearance before publication
